

CASINO BABEL
Spoonful Of Clues

Clue 1

ILL AT EASE, PART 2

Unbehagen, Teil 2

Come along to my house, we can sit on the balcony, refugees from the world playin' with each other's toys, talking and listening for a weekend or longer.
We could be friends.

Someone who cares is hard to find in this cursed village of my youth.
This hibernation goes on for ages all year long - all year long

Can't help to be dissatisfied in this blessed village of my youth.
The ones I like best will always move out Out of sight - out of mind.

Come to my house - take a deep breath Come to my house - drink a deep draught Come to my house - think a deep thought Come to my house, no-one else could blow this trumpet quite like you.

Now I'm not saying that the past was a time I loved living in but I knew people who I could turn to day or night - day or night

The garden has some quiet spots.
We can watch as the birches grow.
A priceless feeling:
we're friends forever here to stay - here to stay

Roland: vocals/guitars/synth Karlo: bass
Rib: drums

Clue 2

'SNOBIZM LIKE SHOWBIZM Glitzerbranche blufft

Nobody but us will ever hum this tune though - by your leave - there's joyful noise to unveil Everyone but us collects his royalties
We are the ones without a cheque in the mail

Milk the clichés dry, boy and the shekels come dripping in Videos and glossy pics with plenty of hired skin will sweep you to the pinnacle of fame

When our tape gets stopped you'll hear sighs of relief Grunts of delight for hyped PR mimicry

Girls won't surround us,

no-one buys us drinks

No A & R man sends a rhyme dictionary

Throw a few lines onto paper when the studio is booked such as "Baby I'm on fiyo, feel my desiyo" and the earless crowd is hooked

Out of work muses are cowering next to the speakers in speechless grief Critics are cringing in agony showered with slime pop beyond belief

Roland: guitars
Karlo: bass/synth
Rib: vocal/drums
Wibell: vibes

Clue 3

JOY DIGGIN' Nach Vergnügen schürfen

Had a date with Camilla Vanilla on a high suspension bridge.
She was willing to lure me across to her wadded anchorage;
but my luggage was glued to the ground.

She said, "Don't you like joy diggin' on the edges of the narrow road?

Don't you like tightrope swingin' watching signals switch to overload?"

I told her,
"Woman and sister, don't tempt me.
I'd hate to make you cry.
Manic sister, you'll end up twice bitten, always shy."

Had a date with Amelia Widow swimming close to her for warmth.
She knew spirits from manifold places, launched a short magnetic storm;
still, my luggage was nailed to the planks.

Roland: vocals/guitars/mandolin Karlo: bass
Rib: drums

Clue 4
NO MAGIC HOOD
Keine Tarnkappe nötig

It's really sad to see but still amuses me you're unaware I came for you.
What do you think I am, a shady hologram, an empty frame you're peeping through?
And your glazy eyes fail to detect
this birds' nest on the ground.

Don't need no magic hood, soon I'll be gone for good.

You said repeatedly perception was the key, lit some candles for the blind.
Those pinky spectacles make you susceptible to irritations of the mind.
And your glazy eyes fail to detect
this birds' nest on the ground.

Roland: el. guitars Karlo: vocals/ac. guitar/bass/synth Rib: drums

Clue 5
PEANUTS ENVY
Phallnußneid

Roland: guitars/key machine
Karlo: bass/synth
Rib: drums/percussion

Clue 6
DEA EX MACHINA
Überraschungsauftritt Göttin

Born in a slow motion museum Stuck in a deprivation maze

I will see it once in a blue moon
All of my senses all ablaze

Raised on threadbare morals and feelings Strange, even Venus feels remorse Heard you're such a natural giver Primal connection with the Source

Just like a dea ex machina
You popped up right before my eyes
But then withdrew yourself too soon To undermine my 'cool' disguise

And for a breathless breath of time Nothing mattered but the wizardry Of you and I

Roland: key & drum machines/
el. & 'Spanish' guitars Karlo: ac. guitar
Rib: vocal/cymbals

Clue 7
ALLERGENIC TOUCH
Allergie-Berührung

Cherry-red spots covering all of your body Nervous fever for three long days Allergy renders our lovin' platonic Looks like we'll head for seperate ways.

I saw no reason to lay my traps when I first watched you floating along.
Then signals back in the infrared proved to be irrepressibly strong.

I saw no reason to spread my wit though a long nose is clearly my taste.
Sneaked round your room for the gist of it and found out you were stripped from the waist.

I was boasting, "My hands will cure you," but in the end carried all the blame.
Longing multiplied by frustration;
with rubber gloves it's just not the same.

Roland: vocals/guitars/synth/shaker Karlo: synth bass/synth
Rib: drums/percussion

Clue 8
THE SUNNY PEAK
Der Sonnengipfel

Once I was buried in a private cocoon, nurturing problems that served me just right.
From the beginning the claims I had staked were much too narrow, much too polite.

Then I was scratching at the surface of love gathering wounds much like trophies of war, chasing the clues of a purpose in life,

'til she made clear what a miracle's for.

When she appeared, the firekissed girl, I was reluctant to move close to the flame, still my craftily woven Alcatraz burned down.
She said, "I like to keep an eye upon slow movers.
You were a wizard, but your staff was broken.
The time has come for me to mend it.

Let's weave a story of distilled emotion, morning dew and silver linings, find a path to the sunny peak, and the ransom of ancient kings cannot lure me away."

Now I'm a creditor in Share And Enjoy!
Powerful webs are tied up from loose ends.
Seems like the jumble sale feelings are gone, Firekissed women are truly intense.

Roland: vocal/el. guitars Karlo: vocal/ac. guitar/bass
Rib: vocal/drums

Clue 9

MISANTHROPICALLY YOURS
Menschenverachtend Dein

Getting involved never suited me, being disturbed I find worse.
Keep your confusion all to yourself,
I like my surprises rehearsed.

Why even tell what a strain you are when it's so blatantly clear?
Though I'm still listening I'm not amused.
How can you be so sincere?

Great piece of luck
- I'm not tempted to court you Such a relief
- You're really not my type So very glad
- I'm profoundly bored with you Thank goodness, no
- You're hardly worth the hype

No-one here knows my real name.
Need some attention now and then.
There must be more to life than this.
Risk some affection once again!

Roland: guitars/drum machine
Karlo: bass/synth
Rib: vocal/drum machine

Clue 0

THE GOLDEN CALF OF POWER
Das Goldene Kalb der Macht

Though you've never seen my name in print I'm at the bottom of your creeping horror Bless this neat deterrence principle!
Cements my stature till tomorrow

Fallen governments, surprise revolts and liberation councils blown to pieces My game's pulling wires behind the scenes It's not my fault that man's a violent species

This world knows just one phenomenon strong enough to make me bend my knee:
The Golden Calf Of Power
takes revenge for my mortality

Showroom dummies playing politics spend countless billions out of paranoia I'm their adviser preaching Law and Order It pays to listen to a mass employer

The promise he gave not to stage such a Flood once more was one blunder too many for God to make This vermin could all have been washed to the ocean floor
It's a task that the chosen should undertake I've seen all the plans for the perfect and final war

You'll regret I'm too old to stick around My ash will be blown everywhere by strong winds before but no mortal can slow the new Deluge down

Love's a good idea in theory but I insist on a design that works Press a button and a town goes "boom" Leave 'peace on earth' to science fiction jerks!

Roland: vocal/guitars/synth Karlo: bass/synth
Rib: drums
Wibell: synth solo
